Seri Manop & Doyle

2025 Global Meeting

Bangkok
November 19 - 22

This year marked the first time in TerraLex’s history that the Global Meeting was held in Thailand. Seri Manop & Doyle was honoured to serve as host, welcoming 158 delegates from 50 member firms to Bangkok from 19–22 November 2025 for a dynamic and highly collaborative programme.

The meeting featured thoughtfully curated sessions on key legal and business developments, complemented by cultural experiences showcasing Thailand’s rich heritage, and reaffirmed our shared commitment to cross-border collaboration and excellence.

TerraLex Global Meeting Takes Place At Four Seasons Hotel Bangkok

Spotlight of the Week: A Summary of an Extraordinary Global Meeting in Bangkok

Last week, TerraLex hosted one of its most memorable and impactful Global Meetings to date, bringing together 158 attendees from 50 member firms for a dynamic, inspiring, and deeply collaborative gathering in Bangkok. Graciously hosted by Seri Manop & Doyle at the exceptional Four Seasons Hotel, the meeting delivered rich insights, cultural experiences, and meaningful connections that showcased TerraLex at its very best.

From the opening Buddhist alms-giving ceremony to the launch of our new TerraLex Member Quality Standards, the program offered a powerful mix of strategic content and authentic engagement. Highlights included the reflective keynote Nothing Is Really Something – The Power of Space and Patience in a Tightly Packed World, the expanded Member-to-Member Networking sessions, interactive panels on cybersecurity, pricing innovation in the age of AI, global election implications, and robust regional showcases, most notably the multi-panel Asia-Pacific Showcase. Attendees also enjoyed the Women's Global Session outing, the first-timers reception, and networking events throughout Bangkok, culminating in an unforgettable closing excursion to Ayutthaya.
